

Uncovering Woodbridge History

A Free Public Archaeology Open House

---

Saturday & Sunday,
September 28-29, 2019 // 12-4pm

Rain or Shine

650 Rahway Avenue
Woodbridge, NJ

Witness an active archaeology dig and talk with archaeologists as they explore one of the earliest house sites in Woodbridge. This Open House takes visitors to the house site of Jonathan Dunham, the first miller in Woodbridge. Since 1872, it has been the rectory for Trinity Episcopal Church. The church and graveyard will be open, as well as limited tours of the Dunham House.

Text CULTURE to 56512 for event details.

www.middlesexcountynj.gov

