Into the Woods PRESS RELEASE (Feb-March 2019)

A Baker. Cinderella. Jack. Have three wishes for a better life. Provided by, intriguingly; a witch, a prince and a giant. In ... the Woods. Into the Woods, the Broadway hit by James Lapine and Stephen Sondheim takes everyone's favorite storybook characters and brings them together for a timeless, yet relevant, modern classic. The Tony Award-winning book and score are both enchanting and touching, and will be presented by Woodbridge High School on Thursday, March 21st; Friday, March 22nd; Saturday, March 23rd (all at 7:00 pm); and Sunday, March 24th at 2 PM. One of Sondheim's most popular works, Into the Woods is a musically sophisticated show featuring young actors adept at dark comedy; while highlighting the whimsy and fantastical elements of this magical, and sometimes scary, world.

Woodbridge's production of Into the Woods features 36 cast members and more than a dozen crew members and backstage running crew, along with student musicians in the pit. Another 20 art students are painting set pieces to help transport our audiences to "Once Upon a Time ..." These dedicated WHS students give their time, talent and energy to make this show worthwhile for Woodbridge Township audiences.

The story follows a Baker (played by Joe Golden) and his wife (Maggie Aube), who wish to have a child; Cinderella (Alyssa Molnar), who wishes to attend the King's Festival; and Jack (Kevin Catalon), who wishes his cow would give milk. When the Baker and his wife learn that they cannot have a child because of a Witch's (Lauren Padden) curse, the two set off on a journey to break the curse. Everyone's wish is granted, but the consequences of their actions return to haunt them later with disastrous results.

The directors are Kelly W. Terrell and Tom Lynch, and the musical directors are Jason Kohn and Lisa Romero. Zoe Nalepa, Brianna Davis, Victoria Barna and Keasia Jenkins are stage managers.

Tickets can be obtained at the door ($13) or in advance from any cast member, or the main office at the high school ($10 in advance). For more ticket information, call 732-602-8600.
