► Orquesta Rumba con Son Appears June 23 in Woodbridge, NJ

WOODBRIDGE, NJ – Orquesta Rumba con Son will highlight the “Woodbridge Wednesdays” summer music fest with a free live performance June 23, 7:30 p.m. on Main Street, downtown Woodbridge.

Led by pianist Jose Abreu, Orquesta Rumba con Son is a 9-piece band from Somerset, New Jersey, that plays an exciting mix of salsa, meringue, cumbia, bolero, bachata and more.

From June 2-August 18 “Woodbridge Wednesdays” presents a summer-long music festival on Main Street, downtown Woodbridge. The free events take place every Wednesday and include a 5K “Pizza Run”, three vintage car shows and nine live music concerts mixed with pre-show all-ages activities and the weekly Woodbridge Farmers Market. The Orquesta Rumba con Son concert is sponsored by Roche Podiatry of Edison.

- All events are free and open to the public. Concerts begin at 7:30 p.m. and pre-show events start at 6 p.m.
- No concerts will be postponed because of weather; if it rains, concerts will be held at Woodbridge Middle School, 525 Barron Avenue, three blocks north of Main Street.
- For more information call (732) 602-6015 or see www.WoodbridgeArtsNJ.com.
