- ▶ Greenable Woodbridge Museum to put on plays promoting recycling, sustainability

WOODBIDGE – Actors ages 7-17 are invited to become members of the Woodbridge Green Kids Theatre Group, a drama troupe organizing to present plays about the environment and ecology.

Auditions are Saturday, Aug. 7, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Greenable Woodbridge Museum of the Future located on the 2nd floor of the JC Penney wing of Woodbridge Center Mall. Actors will read from provided scripts; come dressed in normal casual attire. Call the Museum at (732) 754-0899 to register.

“Plays are a great way of spreading positive messages in the community,” says Museum administrator Ashley Strain. “If you love the environment and want to have fun telling people about it, Woodbridge Green Kids Theatre Group is for you.”

The Greenable Woodbridge Museum of the Future is the region’s first museum devoted to all things “green”. Sponsored by Woodbridge Township, the Museum features interactive displays, ecology-centered events, green business counseling and educational programs devoted to sustainable energy, transportation, manufacturing and community living in Woodbridge Township.

The Museum is a joint public-private partnership between Woodbridge Township and Bayshore Recycling, HSBC, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Citibank and Woodbridge Center Mall.

Visitor hours are Monday-Friday 2 p.m. to 8 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., Sunday 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Current Museum exhibitors include the Rainforest Alliance, Cloud Institute for Sustainable Education, Middlesex Water Company, Middlesex County VoTech, Woodbridge Schools, Bayshore Recycling, Borders Books and the Woodbridge Artisans Guild.
