▶ African Reggae Featured in July 14 Concert in Woodbridge, NJ

▶ “Meta & The Cornerstones” bring global beat to Central Jersey

WOODBIDGE, NJ – The sensational 12-piece reggae band Meta & The Cornerstones will perform a free public concert on Main Street in downtown Woodbridge on Wednesday, July 14, 2010, 7:30 p.m.

The Meta & The Cornerstones concert is part of the “Woodbridge Wednesdays” summer music fest running June 2-August 18 featuring a 4-mile “Pizza Run”, three vintage car shows and nine live music concerts mixed with pre-show all-ages activities and the weekly Woodbridge Farmers Market on Main Street, downtown Woodbridge, New Jersey.

Originally from Senegal and now based in Brooklyn, Meta & The Cornerstones fuse Afropop, Hip-Hop, Rock and Soul with a scintillating blend of French, English, Wolof and Fulani vocals. With their powerful lyrics, rocking reggae rhythm and feel-good melodies, Meta and the Cornerstones create a sound that transcends oceans, borders and language barriers.
