Mayor John E. McCormac Announces Movies in the Park at the Sewaren Waterfront

Outdoor Movies Set for Thursday's in August
Aug. 16 ~ Happy Feet... Aug. 23 ~ Charlotte's Web... and Aug. 30 ~ Over the Hedge

Woodbridge - Mayor John E. McCormac announced that "Movies in the Park" ~ the popular waterfront attraction ~ returns for another season as Woodbridge Township and the Middlesex County Board of Chosen Freeholders present free movies at the Alvin P. Williams Memorial Park in Sewaren each Thursday in August.

"The Movies in the Park series has become an August tradition for families throughout the Township," Mayor McCormac said. "We are thrilled to present family entertainment which includes free refreshments courtesy of Royal Albert's Palace, the Township's largest catering facility."

The park opens at 6:30 p.m. The Movies get underway at approximately 8:30 p.m. This summer's line-up includes:

- Aug. 16 ~ Happy Feet
- Aug. 23 ~ Charlotte's Web
- Aug. 30 ~ Over the Hedge

"Movies in the Park are presented in conjunction with the Mayor's Youth Advisory Committee of Woodbridge Township," said Councilwoman Patricia Osborne. "The students on the Committee chose the movies and they volunteer at the events," said Councilwoman Patricia Osborne who serves as Township liaison to the Youth Advisory Committee.
