GO FLY A KITE SAT. MAY 10

Mayor John E. McCormac Tells Woodbridge Township Residents to "Go Fly a Kite" This Saturday in Sewaren Park

WHAT: Mayor John E. McCormac and Councilwoman Patricia Osborne reminded Woodbridge Township residents that Sat., May 10 is the annual "Go Fly A Kite" competition at the Alvin P. Williams Memorial Park in Sewaren. Flying a kite is fun for all ages... kids & teenagers... moms & dad's... families & seniors.

The annual "rite-of-spring" kite flying event is sponsored by the Mayor's Youth Advisory Committee and the Woodbridge Township Department of Recreation & Resident Services. Prizes and certificates will be awarded for the smallest, largest and most unusual kite... and for the kite that stays in the air the longest. For more information call 732-596-4048.
