Woodbridge Kicks-off Holiday Season with Line-Up of Festive Events Throughout the Township

Annual Holiday Parade on Main Street... Lighting the Chanukah Menorah & Holiday Tree... Caroling & Seasonal Classics... Barron Holiday Concert...

Woodbridge - Mayor John E. McCormac today announced a Township-wide line-up of seasonal events and holiday happenings guaranteed to keep residents and shoppers in the holiday spirit. Noting that Woodbridge has been celebrating the holiday season since 1664 ~ and that Santa doesn't even have to ask for directions any more ~ Mayor McCormac offered a seasonal cornucopia of events that includes the 47th Annual Holiday Parade down Main Street... the lighting of the holiday tree and Chanukah Menorah... and the Barron Arts Center Holiday Concert... and all are FREE to the public.

This year's Holiday event spectacular kicks-off with the Annual Woodbridge Holiday Parade on Sun., Dec. 2 at 1:30 p.m. as themed-floats, marching units, fire and first aid members, veterans groups and marching bands, along with a trio of Queens and their Courts representing the three Township High Schools, take to Main Street in downtown Woodbridge. The theme of this year's holiday parade is "A Holiday Tradition."
