Mayor John E. McCormac Announces Appointment of Woodbridge Township CFO

WOODBIDGE – Mayor John E. McCormac today announced the appointment of Richard P. Cahill, 42, to the position of Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for Woodbridge Township. The CFO is responsible for the preparation of the annual Township budget, oversight of more than $250 million in annual cash receipts and disbursements and Township financial reports.

“We conducted an extensive and wide-ranging search and interviewed a number of individuals for the CFO position. Richard Cahill emerged as the candidate with the most experience and greatest scope of service,” Mayor McCormac said. “I have known Rich for a long time and, as a CPA, I have a great deal of respect for his financial and accounting background. We are pleased to welcome Rich as the new Township CFO and as a member of the Administration’s professional team.”

According to Mayor McCormac, Cahill maintains certifications as a Certified Public Accountant, Registered Municipal Accountant, Public School Accountant and School Business Administrator. Cahill most recently served as Assistant Business Administrator and Acting Board Secretary for the Wayne Board of Education in Wayne, Passaic County. Cahill was a manager of Governmental Services for the accounting firm of Lerch, Vinci and Higgins from 1995 to 2005 and staff accountant and municipal auditor for Newark-based Samuel Klein and Company from 1987 to 1994.

The Municipal Council previously approved Cahill’s appointment as CFO at an annual salary of $125,000.
