EVENT & NEWS ADVISORY

Mayor McCormac to Open New Jersey Senior Olympic Games on Sat., Sept. 8

Mayor's Wellness Campaign & Senior Olympics Promote Health & Fitness as Senior Athletes from Across the State Get Set To Compete in 15 Challenging Sporting Events

WHAT: Mayor John E. McCormac, along with representatives from the New Jersey Senior Olympic Committee and former senior gold medalists, will officially open the 2007 New Jersey Senior Olympic Games on Sat., Sept 8 at ceremonies outside the Woodbridge Community Center.

The New Jersey Senior Olympic Games offer senior athletes 50 years of age and older the opportunity to compete for the Gold, Silver and Bronze. The Senior Olympic Games and competition will take place at sporting venues throughout Woodbridge Township, including the YMCA at the Community Center, The Club at Woodbridge, Warren Park, and the athletic fields at John F. Kennedy High School. The senior competition is part of the "Mayor's Wellness Campaign" which encourages Township residents – regardless of age – to engage in a healthy and fit lifestyle. The New Jersey Senior Olympics is part of the National Senior Games Association.
