▶ Barron Arts Center Presents “Works of Art on Paper”

▶ 21 local artists showcase innovative use of paper as art

WOODBIDGE – Woodbridge Township Mayor John E. McCormac invites the public to view an innovative new exhibit at the Barron Arts Center titled “Works of Art on Paper”.

The exhibit is sponsored by Woodbridge Township Cultural Arts Commission and will be on view from Oct. 4-31 at the Barron Arts Center, 582 Rahway Avenue, Woodbridge. Opening reception is Oct. 7 from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

“Works of Art on Paper” can be viewed during regular gallery hours, Mon.-Fri. 11 a.m.-4 p.m. and Sat.-Sun. 2-4 p.m. Admission is free. For information call the Barron Arts Center at (732) 634-0413.

The exhibit is curated by Edison Arts Society member Ray Skibinski and includes 21 artists from Woodbridge, Edison, Metuchen, Basking Ridge, Fanwood and Beachwood. The works are produced on or of paper and span a wide range of process and form including pencil, pen and ink, gouache, watercolor, charcoal, acrylic, sculpture, three-dimensional construction, collage and mixed media.

“This is an invitational exhibit designed to showcase exciting contemporary art made from a very ancient medium,” says Barron Arts Center Director Cynthia Knight.

The Barron Arts Center is an accessible facility housed in the historic Barron Library Building at 582 Rahway Avenue, Woodbridge. The Director of the Center is Cynthia Knight. For further information or directions, please call the Center weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. at (732) 634-0413.
