WOODBIDGE – Woodbridge Township Mayor John E. McCormac believes the Oct. 11 Barron Arts Fine Art Festival is a great way to showcase the diversity of fine arts in Woodbridge.

“Our Mayor’s Campaign for the Arts has been actively promoting local artists with special events throughout the year,” says Mayor McCormac. “The Barron Arts Fine Art Festival is a chance for the public to see the cream of our artist crop in one place on one day.”

The Barron Arts Fine Art Festival will be held Saturday, Oct. 11 from noon-4 p.m. at Parker Press Park, Rahway Avenue and Main Street in downtown Woodbridge. Admission is free. For information call the Barron Arts Center at (732) 634-0413.

The festival will feature 41 artists spanning a wide spectrum of artistic media including pottery, paintings, glasswork, ceramics, photography, greeting cards, t-shirts, mosaic and fabric art, hand-crafted jewelry, weaving, wood and metal sculpture, digital art and more.

Music will be provided by the Joe Frame Trio, a renowned Woodbridge-based chamber jazz and Brazilian music ensemble.
