

MAYOR JOHN E. McCORMAC
COVID-19_CODE RED

FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 2021

This is Woodbridge Mayor John McCormac and today is Friday, June 17.

There were only 12 new cases of Coronavirus from the general public in the last week. From Friday through Thursday the numbers were one, zero, four, two, one, four and another big fat zero with no new cases in outside facilities.

We still have vaccination clinics scheduled at our Health Center tomorrow from 10-2, Tuesday from 3-5 and Thursday from 12-4.

Tomorrow is a Juneteenth Festival sponsored by the Woodbridge Organization of Neighbors Advocating Change on our concert field from 12-4 featuring music, local artists, children's activities, performances and plenty of food vendors with music by DJ Flash.

Dads can play miniature golf for free on Father’s Day this Sunday from 12-9 behind the Woodbridge Community Center with any paid child admission so ask your Dad to borrow money and use it to take him out. He won’t make you pay it back.

Our summer playground and parks program featuring arts and crafts and games begins on Monday. Parks that will be staffed include Singer Park, School 23 and LeGrand Believe Park in Avenel; School 19 in Menlo Park Terrace; Boynton Park and 4th Street Playground in Port Reading; Buffer Strip Park and School 28 in Sewaren; Kennedy Park and Iselin Middle School in Iselin; School 25 in Fords; Clyde Avenue Park in Hopelawn; Adelaide, Berry Street, Terpanick and Lyman Avenue Parks in Woodbridge proper along with the Tanzman Recreational Area; and Long Hill playground, Remembrance Park and School 22 in Colonia.

Our summer camp programs also kick off on Monday at Merrill Park in Iselin, the Woodbridge Community Center and Kidsports at The Club at Woodbridge.

Youth Recreation Soccer registration continues. For camps and soccer call 732 6596 4048 or email recreationdepartment@twp.woodbridge.nj.us.

Our summer concert series kicks off with Jesse Garron’s Tribute to Elvis on Monday night, the Sensational Soul Cruisers Tuesday night, the world renowned Richard Thompson on Wednesday night, local band Dead Cowboys on Thursday – all at 7 p.m. at our concert field behind Woodbridge High School.

The Avenel Performing Arts Center has national known comedian Vic DiBietto tonight and tomorrow and a funny play called Assisted Living: The Musical from June 22 through June 27. Check avenelarts.com.

There is information on our Township web site about State programs that help people pay utility bills and that assist small businesses with grants.

So we unfortunately had a kid in Woodbridge who swallowed four quarters. I asked the doctor about his condition and the doctor said “No change yet!!!”

We would like to wish all the dads in Woodbridge a Happy Father’s Day.

Thank you.
