WOODBRIDGE POLICE DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATES ARMORED CAR ROBBERY

Woodbridge - The Woodbridge Township Police Department (WPD) is actively investigating the armed robbery of a Brinks Company armored vehicle at approximately 11:30 am (today), Tues., March 7, 2023, outside the Home Depot Store located at 1555 St. Georges Ave. in the Colonia section of Woodbridge Township, Middlesex County, New Jersey.

The WPD's ongoing investigation determined that the driver of the armored vehicle was approached by two armed individuals as he (driver) was exiting the rear of the Home Depot in possession a secured bank bag. The two suspects (undetermined race) were wearing face coverings, dark hooded sweatshirts and dark-colored pants. The two suspects fled the scene in a vehicle (description pending) in the direction of Rahway – the adjoining town to Woodbridge – with an undetermined amount of cash and/or negotiable instruments.

The WPD is requesting that anyone with information that might aid in the investigation to contact Det. Andrew Kondracki at: 732-634-7700. All information will remain confidential.
